Dummy casse to track 887 square feet of minor addition. At this time the 270 square foot attic access area approved in 2003 is to be fully enclosed with no access and therefore the minor addition is only for the 887 square feet. The 270 s.f. area should be credited to the case, however it looks like it was never tracked in P*P, therefore no credit will be given. The first floor is 5,954 square feet, second floor is 809 square feet for a total of 6,763 square feet existing. The new is 887 square feet. Total square footage on site is 7,650 square feet. Later the owner will come in for HLC DPA finding to allow the 270 s.f. area to be legalized. DPA will be required because the 887 + 270= 1,157 for a 157 square foot small addition.
