Waterfront Parking Permits

No Fee Increase for 2009 Annual Parking Permits

Whale watching season has officially begun—time to purchase your annual Waterfront Parking Permit. The good news is that this year's permit prices are the same as last year's: General Permits are $95; Slipholder Permits (one per slip) $70.

The 2009 annual parking permits are valid from the date of purchase through December 31, 2009. So, you might want to purchase your permit now for whale watching season and a whole year of uninterrupted, economical parking. General Permits are available at the Harbormaster's Office and all Waterfront parking kiosks, except Stearns Wharf. Parking attendants may only accept cash or local checks with identification. The Harbormaster's Office will accept cash, local checks with identification, Visa, MasterCard or Discover Card.

For more information about parking permits, call 564-5523 or visit SantaBarbaraCA.gov/H2OParkingPermits.

WHALE WATCHING SEASON IS MAKING A SPLASH

Between December and May nearly 15,000 California gray whales travel along the Pacific Coast between the cold Arctic feeding grounds to the warm, shallow breeding waters of Baja, California.

Then from February through May they begin their northward migration, which is lead by pregnant females. The new mothers and their babies trail behind, close to the coast for safety. Sign up with our local charters to experience this magnificent journey. Have a whale of a time by visiting us online at SantaBarbaraCA.gov/SBHarbor to book your trip today.
