6) DOWNTOWN AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

Sergio Arriaga, Parking Coordinator, updated the Committee on the Ambassador Program. He talked about staffing levels, the social services partners and also shared statistics on business contacts, and smoking warnings issued.

The Committee acknowledged the difficult work that is being done and the positive changes that are taking place on State Street. Some Committee members expressed an interest in walking with the Ambassador Team.

Will Rehling from Accessible Santa Barbara spoke at public comment.

The Ambassador team was recognized by the Public Works Director, Rebecca Bjork, as the Team of the month.

7) FULL-TIME MONTHLY PARKING PERMIT PILOT PROGRAM

Sarah Clark, Parking Resources Specialist, presented a pilot program for 24 Hour Parking Permits at the Canon Perdido Street Garage, the Granada Garage, and the Ortega Garage.

Staff asked for the Committee's recommendation to implement a pilot program to issue no more than 35 all-day monthly parking permits at $250 per month.

The Committee discussed the program's implementation details with staff.

Motion: That the Committee recommend implementation of the pilot program, with the Fee Resolution change to City Council and asked Staff to return to the Committee to report on the results.
