2010 Finger Lakes International Wine Competition | Bronze Medal (Chardonnay)

Wine Spies

"Complex, delicious and well balanced with bright fruit that mirrors the nose. These are set against more serious Burgundian style flavors with earthy apple skin, flint, toasty oak, vanilla and soft spice." October 2009

Colorado Wine News

"... fermented in French Oak, 81% new, for 2,5 months. Soft aromas of oak, apple, Asian pear, lemon, and spice repeat with the exception of the Asian pear as big, mouth filling flavors which finish long and medium-broad with lingering lemon and lemon peel. Well put together..." December 2009

Tasting Panel Magazine, Anthony Dias Blue | 90 Points

"...Creamy, fresh and clean with ripe tropical fruit and a long, pure finish; stylish and balanced." May 2010

2008 Deep Sea Chardonnay Bien Nacido

2010 Long Beach Grand Cru Awards | Silver Medal

2008 Deep Sea Chardonnay Santa Barbara County

Wine & Spirits | 90 Points
August 2010

2010 Critics Challenge International Wine Competition | Gold Medal

2008 Deep Sea Pinot Noir

2010 Critics Challenge International Wine Competition | Silver Medal
"Very soft and sweet, this shows no hard edges and will be a crowd pleaser."

2008 Deep Sea Sauvignon Blanc

2009 Long Beach Grand Cru | Silver Medal

Colorado Wine News

"..contains 4% Viognier and a portion completed malolactic fermentation and has interesting aromas of floral, talcum powder, and a green note before smooth, round, mouthfilling flavors of juicy apple accented with a green note... medium-broad, medium-long finish which is spicy and persistent. Well put together." December 2009

Vintwined.com

"This wine immediately recalled ocean scents at the nose, a complex minerality and California-esque grassiness across the palate with a lip smacking finish. I thought it was delicious." June 2009

Dan Berger's Vintage Experiences

"A totally fascinating approach: Monterey County SB with a distinctive herbal and grassy element straight out of the 1970's, updated with a freshness akin to New Zealand... Highly Recommended." July 2009

Mark Oldman, Wine Educator, Author (Mark Oldman on Facebook)

"...refreshing notes of dill and honeydew, with a medium weight and plenty of the tanginess that makes Sauvignon Blanc so food friendly." August 2009

Wineskinny.com

"Rancho Arroyo Grande 2008 Sauvignon Blanc Monterey County Deep Sea. Pungent (in a good way!) with mineral and grapefruit aromas and flavors, along with juicy orange and honeydew, and a long, crisp finish. Ready to drink now." June 2009

2008 Deep Sea 'Sea Flower' Dry Rosé

Mark Oldman, Wine Educator (Mark Oldman on Facebook)

"... an irresistible pink wine, dry but smooth, with an explosion of red fruit on the palate. Perfect with the pepperoni pizza we had for lunch." August 2009

Colorado Wine News

"Eighty-two percent of the wine was matured in French oak for eight weeks. A very sweet nose reminiscent of the syrup from frozen strawberries introduces smooth, ripe but not sweet flavors strawberry with seeds and spice at the front..." December 2009

Vintwined.com

"A tart, dry rose that ached for a chilled butter lettuce based salad. Definitely a good "food" rosé." June 2009
