THE HISTORIC LANDMARKS COMMISSION WILL HOST A PUBLIC WORKSHOP MEETING TO DISCUSS POTENTIAL HISTORIC RESOURCES

You received notice that your property is being considered for listing on the City's Potential Historic Resources List at a hearing on January 29, 2014. We invite you to an informational meeting to learn more about the historic resources surveys completed in Santa Barbara.

Date:
Wednesday, January 15, 2014
5:30-6:30 p.m.
630 Garden Street
David Gebhard Public Meeting Room

The surveys identified two types of historic resources:

1. Individually significant historic resources that may be eligible for designation as Structures of Merit or City Landmarks.
2. Potential Historic Districts
 - Mission Gardens Historic District
(For a map and history go to the web link and click on your district: <http://www.santabarbaraca.gov/services/community/historic/resources.asp>)
 - Plaza Bonita Historic District
(For a map and history go to the web site and click on your district: <http://www.santabarbaraca.gov/services/community/historic/resources.asp>)

For a copy of the survey form on your individual property, please contact the staff below.

Topics covered will include:

- What is the “Potential Historic Resources List” and how does the listing impact your property?
- How will the designation benefit your property and neighborhood?
- Preservation Incentives available to property owners
