She also asked that one such property at 414 Ruth Avenue, which received approval for its design review on today's HLC Consent agenda, be continued.

3. Mary Louise Days emphasized that this is a highly sensitive site, and high density housing should not be placed here. She also stated that cultural resource conditions of approval should be delineated today, and that conditions of approval should prohibit the combining of units on the third floor.
4. Kellam de Forest stated that an AUD project should never have been allowed for this site and expressed concern for the height, as the view from De La Guerra Street is important.
5. Steve Dowty, of the Pearl Chase Society, stated that this proposal is inappropriate for the site, as it is surrounded by historic resources.

6. Anne Petersen, of the Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation, emphasized that the size, bulk, and scale are not compatible for a project adjacent to the founding site of our community. She also requested that any archaeological work be done in communication with the Trust.
7. Correspondence from Dee Duncan was acknowledged.

12. Add a traditional fountain to the courtyard, perhaps in the middle as opposed to the side.
13. Add charm and poetry to the design, while keeping it rustic.
14. Study eliminating the third-floor studio.
15. The roof forms should be simplified.
16. The Commission wished for the historic flagpole to remain.
