Planning Commission January 11, 2018 Hearing on the draft Accessory Dwelling Unit Ordinance Postponed

Welcome

The City is proposing amendments to Title 28 and Title 30 of the Zoning Ordinance to adopt local development regulations related to Accessory Dwelling Units and encourages public involvement. We hope you will find the contents of this issue useful.

In light of community impacts and closure of Highway 101 and other roads due to the mudflows in Montecito, the Planning Commission hearing scheduled for January 11, 2018 to review proposed amendments to the Santa Barbara Municipal Code to establish development regulations for Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs) has been postponed until Thursday, January 25, 2018. The staff report, including the revised draft ADU Ordinance and other attachments, is still available for review on the ADU website at www.santabarbaraca.gov/ADU and on the Planning Commission website at www.santabarbaraca.gov/PC.

Written public comment on the draft ADU Ordinance will continue to be accepted. Mail correspondence to PC Secretary, P.O. Box 1990, Santa Barbara, CA 93102-1990 or email to PCSecretary@SantaBarbaraCA.gov. Please submit 12 copies of any material over 2 pages at the Planning & Zoning counter, 630 Garden Street. Please note that the Planning Commission may not have time to consider written comments received after 4:30 p.m. on the Monday before the meeting.
