

Arts and Crafts Show Member Payment Options

New member joining the show and members returning to the show after a lapse in membership are required to pay their 6-month fee, including the advertising fee, before they can begin participation in the show.

Members renewing after their initial 6-month membership may pay their entire 12-month fee up front, or they may split their payment into either 2 payments covering 6-months each or 4-payments covering 3-months each. Members using a payment plan will be charged a payment plan fee of $10 per payment (members making 2 payments per membership year will be charged $20 and members making 4 payments per membership will be charged $40).
