

BCycle for All: Low-Income Membership with Santa Barbara BCycle

Electric bike share program provides Santa Barbara with a low-income membership.

Want to use a brand-new electric bike to get around town? Can't afford one? No problem! Ride one everyday around Santa Barbara for only $25 per year!

Santa Barbara BCycle, the City's bike share operator, has it covered. BCycle for All, provides low-income membership for those who qualify.

How do I qualify? Anyone who has an annual income level at or below the 200% federal poverty guidelines will receive a form to submit asking general questions about employment, income level, and age. You can access the form by emailing santabarbara@bcycle.com.

Don't qualify? No worries! You can use the same electric bikes for only $150 per year, which can be purchased at Santabarbara.bcycle.com/rates or through the BCycle app. Users can also purchase a pay-as-you-go pass for $7 every 30 minutes. For more information, visit <https://santabarbara.bcycle.com/rates> for the latest on BCycle in Santa Barbara.