

Cruzito Herrera Cruz

Hello. Buenos Diaz. My name is Cruzito Herrera Cruz. Mi llamo es Cruzito Herrera Cruz.

My political declaration to enter the electoral election for the Municipality of the City of Santa Barbara, California stems from the notion of "equalitarianism" and the notion that all Santa Barbarians are born equal. The current state of civic affairs is that are local polity has an unequal standing in terms of political power and political influence.

Therefore, the residents are governed and consented to constitutional principles under California Article II Section 1. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for their protection, security, and benefit, and they have the right to reform or alter it when the public good may require of it, thus section 2 of said Article I gives me, gives you, gives all Santa Barbarians the entitlement to vote.

Whereas, the right to vote stems from the belief that womankind and mankind are socially and politically equal. Each individual vote is to be counted as one because our civic trait is seen to exist that all people require that they be treated equally. All people should be treated with the same consideration, same concern and same service.

Whereas, each person will receive equal treatment under the law. Equal opportunity for such things as education, development of capacities, and fulfillment of Santa Barbara's needs.

Hopefully, I can gain your vote November 3, 2009.
