

How to Search and Browse in Aspen

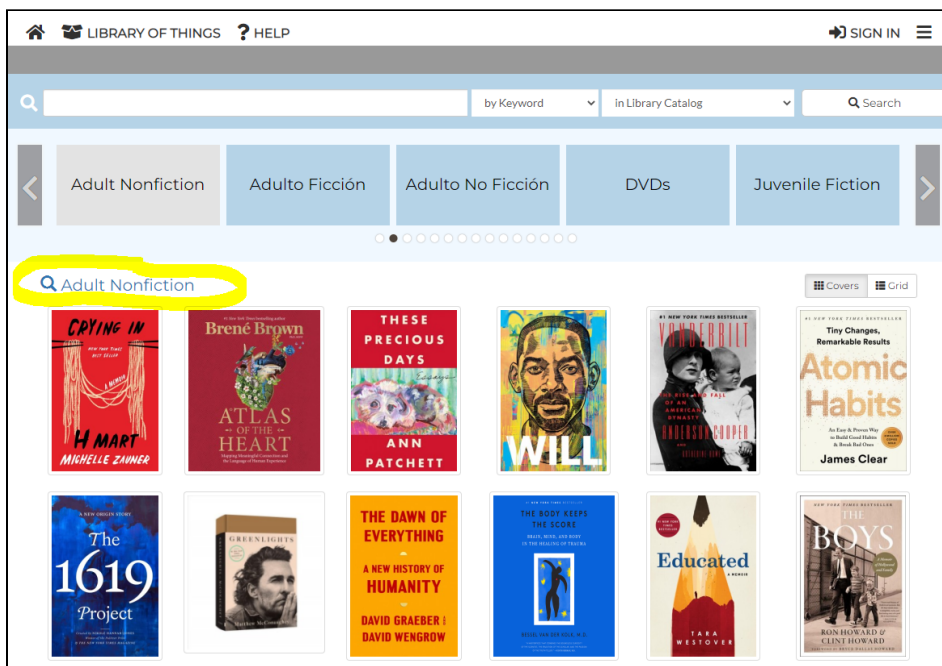

Navigate to the Aspen catalog, available on the library website: <https://catalog.sbplibrary.org/>

Browsing

You can browse in Aspen by looking at the categories at the top of the page. Use the arrows to browse different categories.

Select the category title, located in the left corner, to access options to filter by format, publication date, and more. This option will also make it easier for you to return to the results list if you are placing titles on hold.

The filters on the left side will narrow your results.

The screenshot shows the library's search interface. At the top, there is a search bar with a magnifying glass icon, a dropdown menu set to 'by Keyword', and another dropdown set to 'in Library Catalog'. Below the search bar, the page is divided into a left sidebar for filters and a main content area for search results.

Searching

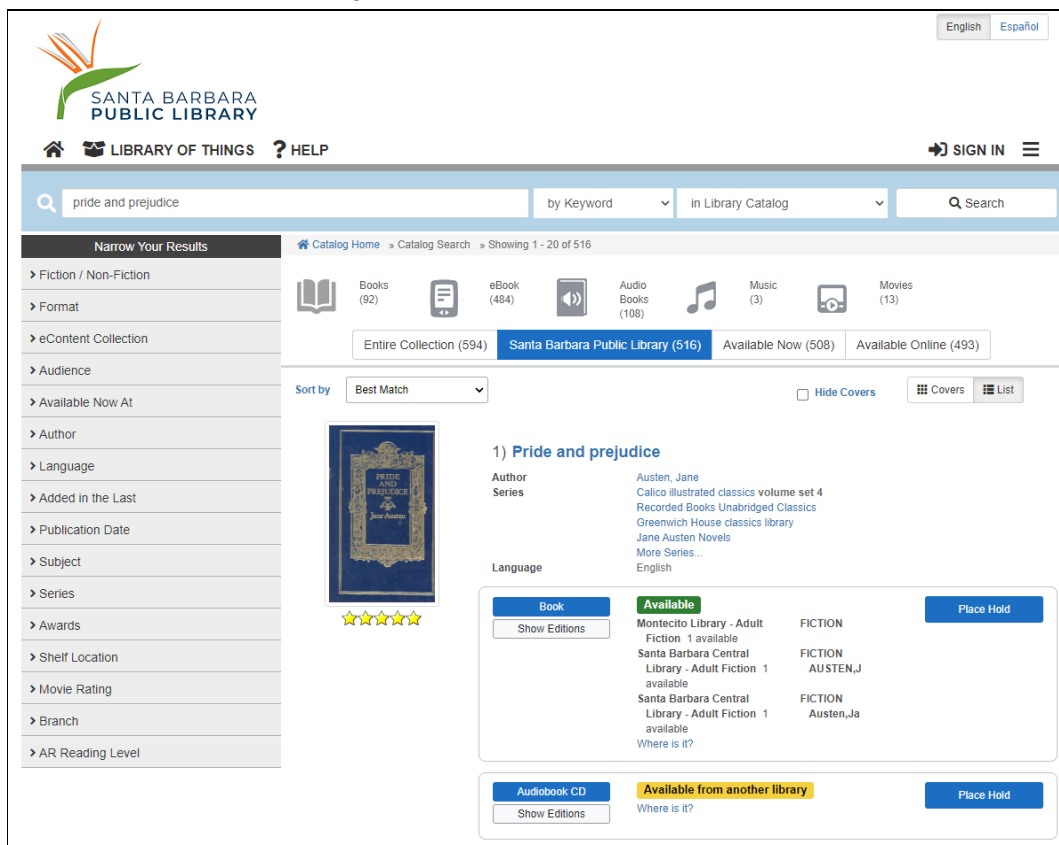

On the main page, enter your search term at the top search bar, located near the top of your screen. The default is set to keyword search, but you can change the search by using the drop down menu.

You will notice predictive text appearing below your search terms. You can click on any of these terms or simply press search to continue with your search.

Here is what the results page looks like.

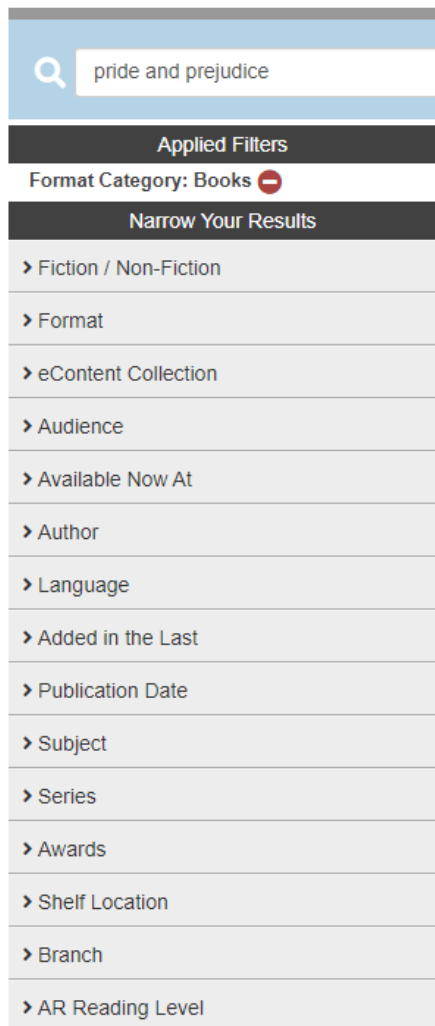

You can use the icons on the top to filter search by format. In this case, just print books are selected.

The screenshot shows the Santa Barbara Public Library website interface. At the top, there is a search bar with the text "pride and prejudice" and a search button. Below the search bar, there are navigation links for "LIBRARY OF THINGS" and "HELP", and a "SIGN IN" button. The main content area displays search results for "pride and prejudice". On the left, there is a sidebar with "Applied Filters" and "Narrow Your Results" options. The "Format Category: Books" filter is selected, and a red minus icon is visible next to it. Below the sidebar, there are icons for "Books (Remove)", "eBook (34)", and "Audio Books (29)". The search results are sorted by "Best Match" and show 1 result: "1) Pride and prejudice" by Jane Austen. The result card includes a book cover, a star rating, and a table of library holdings. The table shows that the book is available at Montecito Library - Adult Fiction and Santa Barbara Central Library - Adult Fiction. There are buttons for "Place Hold", "Book Club Kit", and "Available from another library".

Use the grey filters on the left side, which also includes filters for publication date and branch location, in addition to the format filters.
